TITLE: Dementia Specific Training for First Responders: Train-the-Trainer

DATES and LOCATION: March 9th & 10th – Virginia Beach Fire Training Facility, 927 S. Birdneck Rd., Virginia Beach
April 12th & 13th - Roanoke Regional Fire & EMS Training Facility, Salem
May 16th & 17th - Fairfax Co. Fire & Rescue Training Academy, 4600 West Ox Rd., Fairfax

DESCRIPTION: The purpose of this school is to provide the basic knowledge and skills necessary to train public safety personnel and first responders on appropriate handling of situations dealing with Alzheimer's patients. It is intended to motivate and present a combined system of skills and attitudes, and to advance new ideas about the handling of this special population group. This training will emphasize the skills needed for the attendees to present this topic area to other agency personnel.

PREREQUISITES: Applicants for this training should be willing to assist their own and other agencies in their area with training as it relates to this subject. Attendees should have a strong interest in Alzheimer's and or related problems associated with dementia and providing training on this topic to fellow first responders.

PRIORITY: Class size is limited. Participants will be chosen on a selected basis according to the above criteria and the responses received. If submitting more than one name for consideration, please indicate on the registration form the priority in which you wish the applicants to be considered. You are encouraged to submit registrations as soon as possible.

IN-SER CREDIT: 12 hours of career development in-service credit will be awarded.

TUITION: None

MEALS: DCJS will furnish breaks.

LODGING: Any lodging required will be the responsibility of the participant's agency.

DEADLINE: Registration must be received no later than one week prior to the scheduled training.

ACCEPTANCE: Individuals will be notified whether they have been selected to attend this training shortly after their application is received. Directions and lodging information will be sent at this time.
